
List any recent exhibits or awards:

Please attach a recent resume with this submission.

Please also attach a list of proposed work for the exhibit, along with size specifications for each piece. The Fine Arts Center encourages artists to allow their works to be purchased. The FAC works on a 70/30 split with artists. All works will remain with the exhibit until after it closes. All payments for the sale of works shall be made to the FAC and the artist will receive payment for any/all sales within a reasonable time frame after the exhibit closes.

Please mail this form, along with the digital images on CD/DVD to:

Questions? Call 803-425-7676. Should you want your CD returned, please include a stamped, self-addressed padded envelope.

The 2011-2012 Committee will meet in spring of 2012 to determine the season. Artists will be notified in writing if their works were not selected. Should you be selected you will be notified by phone and/or email.

Please note: All expenses incurred by the artist(s) in travel, set up, tear-down, etc. of any exhibit are not reimbursed by the FAC. The cost of exhibiting in the Bassett Gallery is the full responsibility of the artist(s) unless otherwise negotiated with the FAC.

Bassett Gallery Specifications

Please note the dimensions of the Fine Arts Center's Bassett Gallery. Exhibitors are required to have sufficient amount of artwork to reasonably fill the Gallery. The Fine Arts Center reserves the right to ask several artists to exhibit as part of a group exhibit. The FAC requests that the artist(s) have all or part of their exhibit available for sale. There is a 70/30 split on the adjusted gross of each sale unless otherwise negotiated.
